Senior Sunday

Our Senior Sunday will be held this year on May 3rd and we will have a potluck lunch following morning services.

Our seniors this years are Brittinee Buford and Josh Davenport. If you would like to give money for the Senior gift, donations can be handed in to Steve Haney or Kim Hamilton no later than this coming Wednesday.

Josh Davenport will be bringing us the lesson the evening of Sr. Sunday.

Old Directories

In moving everything out of the office to install the new carpet, we found two boxes of directories from about 7 years ago. If you would have any interest in having one or more of these, they are available in the foyer.

The process of getting our new directories finished, is moving right along.

Medina Children's Home Next Sunday, May 3rd, will be the last day for drop of diapers. To the left is a sizing guide and brand guide, particularly for the overnight diapers. They are asking for Diaper sizes 2 to 5 and Overnight Diapers for boys and girls ages 5-10.

Money can be given to the office staff and they will be glad to purchase the diapers for you.

Sympathy

Our deepest love and sympathy is extended to Lecy Ybarra and her family in the passing of her husband Vincent Ybarra this past Friday afternoon. Vincent suffered a stroke in their home this past Tuesday and had been at Clear Lake hospital since the stroke.

As of Friday funeral arrangements were pending.

Those to remember in prayer...

Mona Travis, the mother of Kevin Ford, was able to be moved the rehab floor this past Friday to start her physical therapy. She is continuing to improve every day, and the doctors believe they will be able to get her well enough to go and live with Kevin and Sheri.

Wanda Duncan is at home, but still experiencing pain in her back. After going over her recent MRI, her neurosurgeon wants to give the surgery she recently had more time to heal before they consider any additional surgery. She will also begin in home rehab. this week.

Carolyn Gearhart, Rayford's cousin and long time cook and kitchen coordinator at our session of Camp Bandina, is in the St. Luke's hospital on Hwy 249, near Tomball. She collapsed at her son's home and it was found that she has a mass behind her gall bladder. She is undergoing tests at this time to determine a diagnosis and treatment.

Gladys Fick is doing much better now as she has completed all of her chemotherapy. She will be meeting with her doctor this week to determine plans for surgery. George Fick has just been diagnosed with prostate cancer and he is also awaiting word from his doctor as to the best way to proceed with treatment.

Judy Wilds, Kathryn Faulk's daughter, was taken to the hospital this past Tuesday with extremely high Blood Pressure and heart rate. She is now home and doing better, but doctors are unsure as to what caused the spike in her Blood pressure.

Please also remember our shut-ins: Jim and Bette Greene, Patsy Pepper, Louise Shepherd, Ruth Davis, and Charlene Taylor.

Camp Bandina Registration

Believe it or not, Camp Bandina is only 6 weeks away. We need all of our teens, 6th—12th grade, who are planning to go to camp, to get their applications in as soon as possible. You are welcomed to fill out a paper application and turn this and at least your deposit in to Steve, or you can apply on-line this year at: campbandina.wordpress.com. Click the registration button at the top and follow the instructions. You can pay online with a credit card or you can still write a check and give it to Steve.

Paper applications are available in the foyer.

The devo. for our teens will be hosted by the Haney's.
